Re: Damon Patrick Toey

Dear Ms. Fried:

This letter sets forth the Agreement between the United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts ("the U.S. Attorney") and your client, Damon Patrick Toey ("Defendant"), in the above-captioned case. The Agreement is as follows:

1. Change of Plea

At the earliest practicable date, Defendant shall waive indictment and plead guilty to a four count information charging him with:

- (a) conspiring to commit fraud and related activities in connection with computers in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1030, fraud and related activity in connection with access devices in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1029, aggravated identity theft, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1028A and money laundering in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1956;
 - (b) committing fraud and related activities in connection with computers owned and operated by Forever 21, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1030;
 - (c) committing fraud and related activities in connection with access devices (credit card numbers) obtained from computer servers owned and operated by Forever 21, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1029; and
 - (d) Committing aggravated identity theft by the sale of credit card "dumps", in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1028A.

Defendant also agrees to waive venue for the purpose of pleading guilty to the three substantive counts listed in subparagraphs (b)-(d), above.

Defendant faces the following minimum mandatory and maximum penalties:

For violation of 18 U.S.C. §371, a maximum penalty of imprisonment for five years, three years' supervised release, and a $250,000 fine;

For violation of 18 U.S.C. §1030, a maximum penalty of imprisonment for ten years, three years' supervised release and a $250,000 fine;

For violation of 18 U.S.C. §1029, a maximum penalty of imprisonment for fifteen years, three years' supervised release, and a $250,000 fine;

For violation of 18 U.S.C. §1028A, a mandatory term of imprisonment of two years to be run consecutive to any other sentence and up to three years' supervised release and a $250,000 fine; and

Forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §982 of all property constituting or derived from proceeds the defendant obtained directly or indirectly from his violations of 18 U.S.C. §§1029 and 1030 and conspiracy to violate these sections;

2. Sentencing Guidelines

The sentence to be imposed upon Defendant is within the discretion of the sentencing court, subject to the statutory mandatory minimum and maximum penalties set forth above, and the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act, and the United States Sentencing Guidelines promulgated thereunder. The Sentencing Guidelines are advisory, not mandatory and, as a result, the Court may impose a sentence up to and including the statutory maximum term of imprisonment and statutory maximum fine. In imposing the sentence, the Court must consult and take into account the Sentencing Guidelines, along with the other factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553(a).

The parties do not have any agreement with respect to the application of the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines. The U.S. Attorney reserves the right to oppose any argument(s) by Defendant for a departure or a sentence outside the Guidelines under the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553(a).

Based on Defendant's prompt acceptance of personal responsibility for the offense(s) of conviction in this case, and information known to the U.S. Attorney at this time, the U.S. Attorney agrees to recommend that the Court reduce by three levels Defendant's Adjusted Offense Level under USSG §3E1.1.

The U.S. Attorney specifically reserves the right not to recommend a reduction under USSG §3E1.1 if, at any time between his execution of this Agreement and sentencing Defendant:

- (a) Fails to admit a complete factual basis for the plea;
- (b) Fails to truthfully admit his conduct in the offenses of conviction;

- (c) Falsely denies, or frivolously contests, relevant conduct for which Defendant is accountable under USSG §1B1.3;
- (d) Fails to provide truthful information about his financial status;
- (e) Gives false or misleading testimony in any proceeding relating to the criminal conduct charged in this case and any relevant conduct for which Defendant is accountable under USSG §1B1.3;
- (f) Engages in acts which form a basis for finding that Defendant has obstructed or impeded the administration of justice under USSG §3C1.1;
- (g) Intentionally fails to appear in Court or violates any condition of release;
- (h) Commits a crime;
- (i) Transfers any asset protected under any provision of this Agreement; and/or
- (j) Attempts to withdraw his guilty plea.

Defendant expressly understands that he may not withdraw his plea of guilty if, for any of the reasons listed above, the U.S. Attorney does not recommend that he receive a reduction in Offense Level for acceptance of responsibility.

Defendant expressly understands that, in addition to declining to recommend an acceptance-of-responsibility adjustment, the U.S. Attorney may seek an upward adjustment pursuant to USSG §3C1.1 if Defendant obstructs justice after date of this Agreement.

3. Sentence Recommendation

The parties do not have any agreement as to the sentences they will recommend at the time of sentencing.

Defendant agrees that he will provide to the U.S. Attorney expert reports, motions, memoranda of law and documentation of any kind on which he intends to rely at sentencing not later than fourteen days before sentencing. Any basis for sentencing with respect to which all expert reports, motions, memoranda of law and documentation have not been provided to the U.S. Attorney at least fourteen days before sentencing shall be deemed waived.

In the event of an appeal from, or collateral challenge to, Defendant's sentence, the U.S. Attorney reserves his right to argue the correctness of Defendant's sentence and the manner in which the District Court determines it.

4. Payment of Mandatory Special Assessment

Defendant agrees to pay the mandatory special assessment to the Clerk of the Court on or before the date of sentencing, unless Defendant establishes to the satisfaction of the Court that Defendant is financially unable to do so.

5. Protection of Assets for Payment of Restitution, Forfeiture and Fine

Defendant agrees not to transfer, or authorize the transfer of, any asset which has been restrained by Order of the Court in this case or any asset, whether or not restrained, which Defendant has agreed to forfeit pursuant to this Agreement.

Defendant agrees not to transfer, or authorize the transfer of any other asset in which he has an interest without prior express written consent of the U.S. Attorney, except for:

- (1) Assets subject to superior, secured interests of innocent third parties, in which Defendant has an equity interest of less than $5000;
- (2) Ordinary living expenses necessary to house, clothe, transport and feed Defendant and those to whom he owes a legal duty of support, so long as such assets do not exceed $3000 per month; and
- (3) Attorney's fees incurred in connection with this criminal case.

This prohibition shall be effective as of the date of Defendant's execution of this Agreement and continue until the fine, forfeiture and/or restitution ordered by the Court at sentencing and any tax liability incurred as a result of the conduct charged in the Information is satisfied in full.

Defendant further agrees that, prior to sentencing, he will truthfully and accurately complete the sworn financial statement enclosed with this Agreement.

6. Waiver of Rights to Appeal and to Bring Collateral Challenge

a. Defendant has conferred with his attorney and understands that he has the right to challenge both his conviction and his sentence on direct appeal. Defendant also understands that he may, in some circumstances, be able to argue that his conviction and/or sentence should be set aside or reduced in a collateral challenge, such as pursuant to a motion under 28 U.S.C. §2255 or 18 U.S.C. §3582(c).

b. The defendant waives any right he has to challenge his conviction on direct appeal or in collateral challenge.

c. Defendant agrees that, if the Court grants the U.S. Attorney's motion for a downward departure pursuant to USSG §5K1.1 and 18 U.S.C. §3553(e) and does, in fact, depart downward on that basis, he will not file a direct appeal nor collaterally challenge any sentence imposed, except that he reserves the right to appeal any legally incorrect guidelines calculation upon which the sentence is based..

d. This Agreement does not affect the rights of the United States as set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3742(b). Defendant expressly acknowledges that he understands the U.S. Attorney has retained his appeal rights.

7. Other Post-sentence Events

a. In the event that, notwithstanding the waiver provision of paragraph 6, Defendant appeals or collaterally challenges his sentence, the U.S. Attorney reserves the right to argue the correctness of the sentence imposed by the district court (in addition to arguing that any appeal or collateral challenge is waived as a result of the waiver in paragraph 6).

b. If notwithstanding the waiver provision of paragraph 6, the defendant seeks re-sentencing, he agrees that he will not seek to be re-sentenced with the benefit of any change to the criminal history category that the Court calculated at the time of the defendant's original sentencing. Thus, for example, the defendant will not seek to be re-sentenced based on the set aside of a prior state-court conviction that occurs after sentencing.

c. In the event of a re-sentencing following an appeal from or collateral challenge to Defendant's sentence, the U.S. Attorney reserves the right to seek a departure from the Sentencing Guidelines and a sentence outside the Sentencing Guidelines if, and to the extent, necessary to reinstate the sentence advocated by the U.S. Attorney at Defendant's initial sentencing pursuant to this agreement.

8. Cooperation

a. Terms of Cooperation

Defendant agrees to cooperate fully with law enforcement agents and government attorneys. He must provide complete and truthful information to all law enforcement personnel. If his testimony is requested, he must testify truthfully and completely before any grand jury, and at any hearing and trial. Defendant must answer all questions put to him by any law enforcement agents or government attorneys and must not withhold any information. He must not attempt to protect any person or entity through false information or omission, or to implicate falsely any person or entity. Upon request, he must furnish all documents, objects and other evidence in his possession, custody or control that are relevant to the government's inquiries.

Defendant understands that he has a right to have counsel present when communicating with representatives of the government concerning the criminal conduct with which he has been charged. To facilitate his cooperation, Defendant hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives this right with respect to all debriefings by law enforcement agents and government attorneys and all appearances to testify. This waiver may be revoked at any time by a specific request by Defendant or his counsel without otherwise affecting the terms or enforceability of this Agreement.

To enable the Court to have the benefit of all relevant sentencing information, Defendant waives any rights he may have to prompt sentencing and will join in any requests by the U.S. Attorney that sentencing be postponed until Defendant's cooperation is complete. Defendant understands that the date of Defendant's sentencing is within the sole discretion of the Court and that this Agreement may require Defendant's cooperation to continue even after Defendant has been sentenced. Defendant's failure to continue to cooperate pursuant to the terms of this Agreement after sentence is imposed shall constitute a breach of this Agreement by Defendant.

b. Substantial Assistance Motion

In the event that Defendant provides substantial assistance in the investigation or prosecution of another person who has committed a criminal offense, the U.S. Attorney agrees that, at or before the time of sentencing, he will file a motion under USSG §5K1.1 to allow the Court to impose a sentence below the applicable Guideline Sentencing Range. At the same time, if he determines it is appropriate, the U.S. Attorney will also file a motion under 18 U.S.C. §3553(e) to enable the Court to impose a sentence below the statutory mandatory minimum.

The determination whether Defendant has provided substantial assistance rests solely in the discretion of the U.S. Attorney and is not subject to appeal or review. The U.S. Attorney expressly reserves the right to decline to file a motion pursuant to USSG §5K1.1 if Defendant violates any condition of his pretrial release, violates any of the requirements of honesty and candor detailed in paragraph 2 above, or engages in any criminal conduct after the date he signs this Agreement. The U.S. Attorney reserves the right, in his sole discretion, to file a motion under USSG §5K1.1 but not under 18 U.S.C. §3553(e). Defendant may not withdraw his plea if the U.S. Attorney determines that Defendant has not rendered substantial assistance, if the U.S. Attorney decides to file a motion under USSG §5K1.1 but not under 18 U.S.C. §3553(e), or if the Court refuses to grant the U.S. Attorney's motion for a downward departure.

c. Sentence Recommendation with Substantial Assistance

If Defendant provides substantial assistance, subject to all the provisions of subparagraphs a and b above, the U.S. Attorney will advise the sentencing judge of the full nature, extent and value of the assistance provided by Defendant.

The U.S. Attorney reserves the right to recommend a particular sentence or sentencing range, or to make no recommendation at Defendant's sentencing.

d. Letter Immunity

In return for Defendant's full and truthful cooperation, the U.S. Attorney agrees not to use any information provided by Defendant pursuant to this Agreement (or any information directly or indirectly derived therefrom) against Defendant in any criminal case except (1) in a prosecution for perjury or obstruction of justice, or for making a false statement after the date of this Agreement; (2) in a prosecution for an act of physical violence against the person of another, or conspiracy to commit any such act of violence, or (3) to establish under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(b)(3) the factual basis for the Court's acceptance of Defendant's plea to the Information described in paragraph 1. The U.S. Attorney also reserves the right to respond fully and completely to all requests for information by the District Court and U.S. Probation Office in this case. All such disclosures, however, shall be made subject to the provisions constraining the use of this information by the District Court and U.S. Probation Office contained in USSG §1B1.8(a) and the commentary thereto. Notwithstanding the provisions of USSG §1B1.8(b)(5) and the commentary thereto, the U.S. Attorney agrees to take the position that at the time of sentencing information provided by Defendant pursuant to this Agreement should not be used either in determining where within the applicable guideline range to sentence Defendant or in determining whether, or to what extent, a departure from the Sentencing Guidelines is warranted.

If the U.S. Attorney determines that Defendant has breached this Agreement by making any false, incomplete or misleading statement, or by providing any false, incomplete or misleading information to any law enforcement personnel, grand jury or court, the U.S. Attorney may terminate this Agreement as set forth below, and may also prosecute Defendant for any and all offenses that could be charged against him in the District of Massachusetts, including, but not limited to, false statements and perjury.

9. Court Not Bound by Agreement

The sentencing recommendations made by the parties and their respective calculations under the Sentencing Guidelines are not binding upon the U.S. Probation Office or the sentencing judge. Within the maximum sentence which Defendant faces under the applicable law, the sentence to be imposed is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge. Defendant's plea will be tendered pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(B). Defendant may not withdraw his plea of guilty regardless of what sentence is imposed. Nor may Defendant withdraw his plea because the U.S. Probation Office or the sentencing judge declines to follow the Sentencing Guidelines calculations or recommendations of the parties. In the event that the sentencing judge declines to follow the Sentencing Guidelines calculations or recommendations of the U.S. Attorney, the U.S. Attorney reserves the right to defend the sentencing judge's calculations and sentence in any subsequent appeal or collateral challenge.

10. Forfeiture

Defendant will forfeit to the United States any and all assets subject to forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §982 as a result of his guilty plea. The assets to be forfeited include, but are not limited to, cash, stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, firearms, tangible and intangible personal property and real estate.

Defendant admits that these assets are subject to forfeiture on the grounds that they constitute, or are derived from, proceeds Defendant obtained directly or indirectly as a result of his violations of, and conspiracy to violate, 18 U.S.C. §§1029 and 1030. Defendant therefore consents to the forfeiture of all of Defendant's interests in all such forfeitable assets to the United States. The forfeitures may be carried out criminally, civilly, or administratively in the U.S. Attorney's discretion.

Defendant agrees to assist law enforcement agents and government attorneys in locating, liquidating, recovering, returning to the United States, and forfeiting all forfeitable assets, wherever located, and in whatever names the assets may be held. Defendant shall promptly take whatever steps are deemed necessary by the U.S. Attorney and U.S. Secret Service to transfer possession of, and clear title to, all forfeitable assets to the United States. Such steps may include, but are not limited to, executing and surrendering all title documents, and signing consent decrees of forfeiture, deeds, sworn statements relating the factual bases for forfeiture, and any other documents deemed necessary by the U.S. Attorney to complete the criminal, civil, or administrative forfeiture proceedings which may be brought against the assets identified in this section and against any other forfeitable assets involved in or related to any of the criminal acts charged in the information and complaint described in paragraph 1 to this agreement.

Defendant hereby acknowledges and agrees that the United States is not limited to forfeiture of the assets specifically listed in this section. If the U.S. Attorney determines that any directly forfeitable assets of Defendant cannot be located upon exercise of due diligence, or have been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party, placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, substantially diminished in value, or commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty, then the United States shall be entitled to forfeit as "substitute assets" any other assets of Defendant up to the value of the directly forfeitable assets fitting any of the categories described in this sentence.

In order to assist the United States in locating and forfeiting directly forfeitable and substitute assets, Defendant shall deliver to the U.S. Attorney within thirty days after signing this Agreement a sworn financial statement, executed under the pains and penalties of perjury, fully and truthfully disclosing the existence, nature and location of all assets in which Defendant currently has any legal or beneficial interest, and all assets over which Defendant has exercised control, or has had any legal or beneficial interest, at any time from January 1, 2003 to the present. At the request of the U.S. Attorney, Defendant further agrees to be deposed with respect to Defendant's assets.

Forfeiture of substitute assets shall not be deemed an alteration of Defendant's sentence. The forfeitures set forth herein shall not satisfy or offset any fine, restitution, cost of imprisonment, or other penalty imposed upon Defendant, nor shall the forfeitures be used to offset Defendant's tax liability or any other debt owed to the United States.

In addition to all other waivers or releases set forth in this Agreement, Defendant hereby waives any and all claims arising from or relating to the forfeitures set forth in this section, including, without limitation, any claims arising under the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment, or the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment, to the United States Constitution, or any other provision of state or federal law.

The United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this section.

Defendant hereby waives and releases any and all claims he may have to any vehicles, currency, computers or other personal property seized by the United States, or seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and turned over to the United States, during the investigation and prosecution of this case, and consents to the forfeiture of all such assets.

11. Civil Liability

By entering into this Agreement, the U.S. Attorney does not compromise any civil liability, including but not limited to any tax liability, which Defendant may have incurred or may incur as a result of his conduct and his plea of guilty to the charges specified in paragraph 1 of this Agreement.

12. Rejection of Plea by Court

Should Defendant's guilty plea not be accepted by the Court for whatever reason, or later be withdrawn on motion of Defendant, this Agreement shall be null and void at the option of the U.S. Attorney.

13. Breach of Agreement

If the U.S. Attorney determines that Defendant has failed to comply with any provision of this Agreement, has violated any condition of his pretrial release, or has committed any crime following his execution of this Agreement, the U.S. Attorney may, at his sole option, be released from his commitments under this Agreement in their entirety by notifying Defendant, through counsel or otherwise, in writing. The U.S. Attorney may also pursue all remedies available to him under the law, irrespective of whether he elects to be released from his commitments under this Agreement. Further, the U.S. Attorney may pursue any and all charges which have been, or are to be, dismissed pursuant to this Agreement. Defendant recognizes that no such breach by him of an obligation under this Agreement shall give rise to grounds for withdrawal of his guilty plea. Defendant understands and agrees that, should he breach any provision of this agreement, the U.S. Attorney will have the right to use against Defendant before any grand jury, at any trial or hearing, or for sentencing purposes, any statements which may be made by him, and any information, computer files, materials, documents, computers or other objects which may be provided by him to the government subsequent to this Agreement, or pursuant to the proffer agreement dated June 3, 2008, without any limitation. In this regard, Defendant hereby waives any defense to any charges which he might otherwise have under any statute of limitations or the Speedy Trial Act.

14. Who Is Bound By Agreement

This Agreement is limited to the U.S. Attorney for the District of Massachusetts, and cannot and does not bind the Attorney General of the United States or any other federal, state or local prosecutive authorities.

15. Complete Agreement

This letter contains the complete agreement between the parties relating to the disposition of this case. No promises, representations or agreements have been made other than those set forth in this letter. This Agreement supersedes prior understandings, if any, of the parties, whether written or oral. This Agreement can be modified or supplemented only in a written memorandum signed by the parties or on the record in court.

If this letter accurately reflects the Agreement between the U.S. Attorney and Defendant, please have Defendant sign the Acknowledgment of Agreement below. Please also sign below as Witness. Return the original of this letter to Assistant U.S. Attorney Stephen P. Heymann.

Very truly yours,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN
United States Attorney
